Who Is The Bravest Of Them All?

Armed with only a ten foot pole and a coil of line. This heroic individual stands fast, given one of the most venturesome and dangerous watches in the Navy. Demanding total attention, 20/20 vision, and real dedication. It is trusted to a sailor chosen after an indepth evaluation. There is only one question which remains in the minds of her shipmates: Is she still standing on the weatherdeck searching the sea's rolling waves for the elusive mail bouy?

"Check your batteries in the sound-powered phone."

Our fearless skipper a firm man remarked with a smile,

"The crew is professional, but this West Pac is the trial!"
