

LCDR J. M. HOYE
EXECUTIVE OFFICER

JAMES M. HOYE was born in Winchester, Virginia, on 4 August 1933, son of the Reverend J. M. and Eleanor (Emme) HOYE. He attended Sandersville High School in Sandersville, Georgia, and Pearisburg High School, Pearisburg, Virginia. He was graduated from Lynchburg College in Lynchburg, Virginia. LCDR HOYE has completed graduate courses at the University of California and the George Washington University. In 1951 he enlisted in the Naval Reserve and attained the rating of BMG3 prior to being commissioned Ensign, USNR in June 1953.

After commissioning, LCDR HOYE served in USS JOHNSTON (DD-821), transferred to the regular Navy and served subsequent sea tours in USS C. P. CECIL (DDR-835), in command of USS LAKELAND (LSM-373) and USS GENESEE (AOG-8) and with the Staff, Commander Service Group THREE. During his tour of duty in JOHNSTON he was present in Trieste, F.T.T. during the Communist riots in December 1954. In CECIL he participated in operations during the Suez Crisis of 1956 and the Lebanon Crisis of 1957. In GENESEE and on Staff CSG3 he participated in the Laos crisis of 1961 and Vietnam support operations.

LCDR HOYE has had shore assignments with the U.S. Fleet Anti-Air Warfare Training Center and the Fleet Computer Programming Center, Pacific, San Diego, California, in the development, checkout and utilization of digital computer programs for the Naval Tactical Data Systems.

Prior to joining the USS WALLACE L. LIND (DD-703) in July 1965, LCDR HOYE was graduated from the School of Naval Command and Staff, Naval War College, Newport, R.I.

LCDR HOYE is authorized to wear the National Defense Service Medal and the Occupation Medal (Europe CLASP).

Married to the former June JENKINS, daughter of Captain P. H. JENKINS, USN (Ret.), he presently resides in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

