

RONALD L. WILLIAMS, USN
EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Coming up through the ranks, LCDR WILLIAMS achieved the rate of YN1 prior to entering the NESEP program, and was commissioned an ENSIGN in NOV 63. Since his entry as an officer, LCDR WILLIAMS served on board the USS AGERHOLM (DD-826), HOPEWELL (DD-861) and was Commanding Officer of the REXBURG (PCER-855). In addition he served on the COMTRAPAC staff, the United Nations Command Staff in Korea, and had a tour in Saigon. LCDR WILLIAMS reported onboard CRAIG in January 1976. He has numerous awards including the Bronze Star Medal, the Joint Service Commendation Medal and the Antarctic Service Medal, for Operation Deepfreeze II aboard the USS STATEN ISLAND.

LCDR WILLIAMS comes from Tacoma, Washington, and is married to the former Dana L. PROVO of Tacoma. The WILLIAMS have 4 children.

A new duty station is in the near future for LCDR WILLIAMS at the Naval Intelligence Support Center, Washington, D.C.

