

Executive Officer

Lieutenant Commander Winter began his naval career in 1970 when he enlisted in the U.S. Navy. He served on USS JOHN WILLIS (DE 1027) as a personnelman. He then served at Naval Technical Training Center, Corry Station, Pensacola, Florida and Naval Air Facility, Sigonella, Sicily. In 1976 he was selected for advancement to PN1 and for Officer Candidate School. He augmented into the regular Navy in November 1978. He was subsequently assigned as Communications Officer on USS FOX (CG 33), Fleet Combat Training Center, Pacific, San Diego, California, Combat Systems Officer on USS INGERSOL (DD 990), Operations Officer for DESRON 7 and on the staff of Commander, Naval Surface Force, U.S. Pacific Fleet before returning to sea as the Executive Officer of USS STEIN (FF 1065) in August 1989.

Lieutenant Commander Erich H. Winter

STCM(SW) Errol V. Samuelson

Command Master Chief

Master Chief Petty Officer Errol V. Samuelson joined the Navy on 5 February 1968, attending boot camp in San Diego, California. Following training at Anti-Submarine Warfare Training Center, Pacific, he reported to the USS HENRY W. TUCKER (DD 875). His following assignments were instructor duty, ASW Training Center Pacific, Service School Command, San Diego, California, USS LEAHY (CG 16) and the Mobile Technical Unit 12 at Mayport, Florida. Having been selected for the Command Master Chief Program, he returned to sea in August 1989 as the Command Master Chief on STEIN. In May 1977 Master Chief Samuelson left active duty and joined the Naval Reserve, serving in USS SOUTHERLAND (DD 743), staff of Commander Submarine Force, Pacific and in the Mobile Inshore Undersea Warfare Unit Two. He was recalled to active duty in August 1981.