

COMMANDING OFFICER CDR DANIEL T. SHERRANGE

Commander Sherrange was born in Erie, Pennsylvania in January 1948. He was graduated from Gannon University in 1969 and was Commissioned through participation in the Reserve Officer Candidate Program in September 1969.

Commander Sherrange's initial sea duty assignments were in USS GREAT SITKIN (AE-17) as Navigator and USS CALCATERRA (DER-390) as Weapons Officer. Following SWOS Department Head Training, he reported onboard USS BAUSELL (DD-845) forward deployed to the Western Pacific and homeported in Yokosuka, Japan, as Engineer Officer.

In March 1976, he reported to Commander Naval Sea Systems Command and was assigned to the 1200/600 psi Steam Propulsion Plant Improvement Program where he served as the Director for Engineering Personnel and Training. Following his first Washington, DC tour, he returned to sea duty as Damage Control Assistant in USS AMERICA (CV-66). While on AMERICA he made a Mediterranean deployment and completed a year-long complex overhaul.

After graduation from the Armed Forces Staff College in Norfolk, Commander Sherrange was assigned in October 1981 to the USS MCCANDLESS (FF-1084) as Executive Officer. He completed deployments to the Mediterranean Sea and Northern Europe. Leaving MCCANDLESS, Commander Sherrange received his Master's Degree in Business Administration and Finance from Old Dominion University in the fall of 1984. After the completion of his academic studies, he returned to Washington, DC serving as the Assistant Program and Budget Coordinator on the Staff of the DCNO for Surface Warfare (OP-03).

Among his various awards, Commander Sherrange wears the Meritorious Service Medal (second award) and the Navy Commendation Medal.

Commander Sherrange is married to the former Linda Rogala of Erie, Pennsylvania. They reside with their two children, daughter Dianne and son Joseph Daniel in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

