

LCDR K. P. Boyle

Executive Officer
USS DENVER (LPD-9)

Lieutenant Commander Boyle is a native of Chicago, Illinois. He was commissioned into the U.S. Navy in December 1990 through the Naval Reserve Officer Training Command at the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana Madison with a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry.

Following completion of the Division Officer training course at the Surface Warfare Officer School in Newport, Rhode Island he reported to his first command aboard the USS SPARTANBURG COUNTY (LST 1192). During this tour he was assigned duties as Gunnery Officer, OI Division Officer, and Auxiliaries and Electrical Officer. During this tour, he completed 2 deployments to the Mediterranean and was involved in operations in support of Operation Desert Storm.

In June 1994, he reported to the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey. In September of 1996 he graduated with a Masters of Science in Mechanical Engineering degree with a concentration in Material Studies.

In June of 1997, he reported to USS PORTLAND (LSD 37) as Operations Officer. During this tour he made another deployment to the Mediterranean Sea. Following this eighteen-month tour, in December 1999, Lieutenant Commander Boyle reported to Commander, Amphibious Squadron Seven as the Staff Material Officer. During his two years aboard he completed a Western Pacific deployment, including substantial operations in the 5th Fleet AOR.

In December 2001, he reported to Commander Naval Readiness Command Midwest as Training Officer. He later flected up to serve as Director of Manpower, Personnel and Training for 26 Reserve Centers in a six state region. It was while in Great Lakes, where he earned a Masters in Business Administration from Websters University.

He next accepted orders to serve on the staff of Commander Naval Reserve Forces Command in New Orleans to serve as the Program Manager for Recall Support where he directed the recall to active duty of several thousand Naval Reservists in direct support of Operations Noble Eagle, Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom.

Finally, in April of 2004, LCDR Boyle reported to USS DENVER (LPD-9) as Executive Officer.

Lieutenant Commander Boyle's Personal awards include the Navy Marine Corps Commendation Medal (6 awards), the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal and numerous campaign and unit awards.

