

"I hope the real evacuation is less confusing."

OKINAWA'S mission is to be ready to undertake the evacuation of American Embassy personnel, and other important foreign nationals, from cities or countries besieged by warring internal factions or external aggressors. The myriad problems expected cannot all be anticipated but the basics of receiving, berthing, feeding and generally caring for refugees became a basic theme of our training.

